Pope Benedict XVI: Church's commitment to Christian unity is irreversible

<https://www.catholicnewsagency.com/archive/2005/6/16>

Seems like Pope made some sort of remark about unifying the Catholic faith - could've led to some discussion about abortion

Anarchism - December 9th, 2005

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Portal:Current_events/2005_December_9

Discussion could have something to do with “an alleged massacre of protesting farmers and fishermen in Dongzhou, Guangdong, China by police forces”

Astrology - July 5th, 2006

Seems Irrelevant

Britney Spears - November 23, 2006

<https://www.neowin.net/forum/topic/515134-britney-spears-is-bi-and-wanted-threesomes/>

Seems like Britney Spears was looking for a 3-some around the time of November 2006 and the pop culture media got a hold of the story on November 23, 2006

Capitalism - April 6, 2005

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, by a 3-2 vote, adopts a set of rules designed to create a National Market System. The dissenting commissioners describe the measure as 'anticompetitive'.

Nothing relevant for “Deaths_in_2003” - this article was made in 2001 - before this even happened. Most comments are empty/blank

Down Syndrome - December 5th, 2006

Seems like many studies regarding down syndrome were completed in 2006. One prominent one was “Fertility in men with Down syndrome”

http://www.fertstert.org/article/S0015-0282\(06\)03067-6/fulltext03067-6/fulltext)

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Down_syndrome - If you search the wiki article for “2006” there are many sources in the reference section that refer to research/studies done on down syndrome in 2006.

Also first World Down Syndrome Day happened in 2006 - it was in March, but still could be relevant.
